GHOST WRITING

Principal drafter of two academic articles that were published in the name of Nelson Mandela: One on South Africa's future foreign policy appeared in Foreign Affairs (72, 5) and the other in a collection entitled The Post War World: Views of the World's Power Elite issued by Oxford University Press, New York. Versions of the latter were variously published in the international media.

Drafted an article entitled "South Africa in Africa: a South African Perspective" which was published in the name of the late Kader Asmal (then South African Minister of Education) published in a collection edited by Adebayo Adedeji for the African Centre for Development and Strategic Studies by Zed Press, London.

POPULAR ARTICLES

(NOT INDIVIDUALLY LISTED, NOR ACCURATELY COUNTED)

Twenty-odd publications which fall between academic and newspaper work. These have appeared in Drum (Johannesburg), Die Suid-Afrikaan (Cape Town), Frontline (Johannesburg), Reality (Pietermaritzburg), Democracy in Action (Cape Town), Leadership (Cape Town), Money Matters (Cape Town), The Condenser 91 (Durban), Indicator South Africa (Durban), The Courier, (Brussels), Red Pepper (London), 'Afrika (Copenhagen). A number in this genre have appeared in student and university publications; others have appeared in a distinctive form, or as consultant's reports.

Some two dozen specialist reports on international, regional and foreign policy topics have been issued by The South African Institute of International Affairs (1974-1983), Kaplan and Stewart Stockbrokers (1993-1994), The Foundation for Global Dialogue (1994), The Centre for Southern African Studies (1993-7), and the Institute of Future's Research, University of Stellenbosch (1994-1997).

Aside from the contributions made during my career as a financial journalist in the early-1970s, several hundred dedicated press pieces - chiefly on international, foreign and security policy, and other public policy issues, including the place of South African universities and education - to The Sunday Times (Johannesburg); The Star, The Sunday Star (Johannesburg); Die Transvaler (Johannesburg); The Financial Mail (Johannesburg), New Nation (Johannesburg), Daily Dispatch (East London), Eastern Province Herald (Port Elizabeth), Sunday Tribune (Durban); Sunday Express (Johannesburg); Rapport (Johannesburg); The Weekly Mail / Mail and Guardian (Johannesburg); The Daily Mail (Johannesburg); Vryeweekblad (Johannesburg); The Cape Times (Cape Town) (where I have also contributed editorials on International Relations); New Era (Cape Town); Natal Witness (Pietermaritzburg), Grocotts Mail (Grahamstown).
