

JIAS

Actuvirtual Symposium at the
Johannesburg Institute for Advanced Study

African Political Thought

What happens to the struggles for human dignity, liberation and freedom from imperial-colonialism and to the history of ideas once we turn to political epistemologies in the continent of Africa? This Actuvirtual Symposium engages with Stephen Chan's book African Political Thought: An Intellectual History of the Quest for Freedom, published with Hurst (2021).

DATE ▪ 29 October 2021

TIME ▪ 16:00 – 18:00 (SAST)

RSVP on <https://forms.gle/1JCbMrtXCnUWDsr27> to receive the Zoom details.

Email vanessak@uj.ac.za if you encounter any problems.

CHAIR
Fazil Moradi
*JIAS, LOST,
Sci-Tech Asia*

Reginald MJ Oduor
*Senior Lecturer
University of Nairobi*

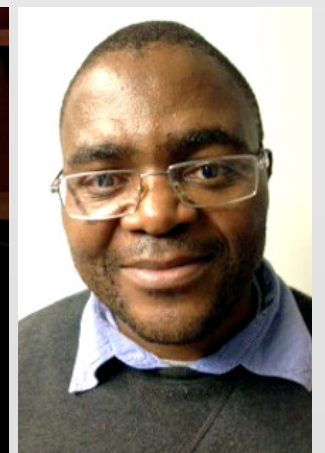

Shobana Shankar
*Associate Professor
Stony Brook University*

Stephen Chan
*Professor, SOAS
University of London*
© Adine Sagalyn

Anthony Bogues
*Professor
Brown University*

Artwell Nhemachena
*Associate Professor &
Lecturer, Kobe University
& University of Namibia*